"In the last seven days alone, I've walked in the footsteps of the Call the Midwife cast, boarded two ships and a submarine, climbed a castle, marvelled at the inside of a stunning cathedral, and fallen down the rabbit hole to join Alice, White Rabbit, Queen of Hearts and Mad Hatter at a tea party! I highly recommend you check out the website and join us for some fantastic fun!"

Dining Out

Shared interests

"My first ever Spice Social event was a drinks evening at The Folly pub in Bristol. The people I met at that first event have become good friends to me, and I can't imagine where I'd be without them. If anyone is on the fence about joining, I would urge you to give it a try. It certainly helped me!"
